

Name: _____

What do kids really know about what adults think? And what do adults really know about what kids think? You and an adult family member are going to try putting yourselves in each other's shoes. The saying "put yourself in their shoes" means to take that person's perspective—to imagine what it's like being them.

Answer the questions on the left side of the page. When you're done, fold the page in half so your answers can't be seen. Next, your adult will answer the same questions on the right side of the page. Then open the page and compare your answers to find out how well you know each other's perspectives.
