The IB Attribute for January is:
Principled. "We are honest and fair. We do the right thing."

A meeting of the minds! We talked about what it means to have principled behavior and how to be a good friend.

Principled Behavior, Catholic Schools Week, & Reading Tree Bookclub!

Even though we only had one class this week, the children made the most of their time together! It was fun to watch the children reconnect and listen to them share stories about playing in the snow. The children also enjoyed music class with Miss Joan, where they played "The Wolf Game", which incorporates song with movement and gross motor skills.

Next week we will be working on a special project for Catholic Schools Week (Jan 26-31). If you don't already know, CSW is time of celebration for our parish, school, our families and our community. Be sure to invite Grandparents and Grandfriends to the Mass and Brunch on Wed, Jan 29 starting at 9:30am! Here is the link to RSVP: Grandparents Brunch

The P3 Bookclub also launches next week. The children will take turns bringing home the classroom book bag, selecting a book or two from their home library, and sharing the stories under our Reading Tree. We encourage you to help your child select appropriate books, and discuss with them why they would like to share it with their classmates. Also, please make sure your child's book(s) are labeled.

You should have already received the Parent Survey in your inbox. Your feedback is important to us and can help shape the future of our school. Results are shared at the State of the School presentation on Feb. 27th. Thank you in advance for your kind participation!
