

Dear Parents,

This will be a short Classroom News this week because we will meet with you and your child next week. I am looking forward to seeing you next week at the conferences. Your child has been preparing all week to share their learning with you. They have a script to help keep them on track and are excited to share everything with you. Remember to enter through the school's front doors and sign in before your conference. Parking will be a challenge on Monday due to a funeral.

The lost and found is overflowing. All items are on tables in the hallway near the auditorium. The tables will be set up until Monday morning due to a funeral. During conference week, these items will be in the upper hallway. Items will be donated at the end of next week. Please look for your missing items.

Upcoming Events:

11/13-11/22 - Book Fair in the auditorium (Monday, because of the funeral, you must enter the auditorium by the stage entrance)
